

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

CRIMINAL #04-1809-CBS

UNITED STATES

v.

JOSEPH ALLEN

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO REVOKE DETENTION ORDER

Joseph Allen, defendant in the above-captioned criminal case, hereby moves this Court, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3145(b), to revoke the order of detention entered by the Court (Swartwood, M.J.) on July 12, 2004. As grounds therefore, defendant avers as follows:

1. The evidence against defendant Allen in this case is so weak that the Magistrate Judge characterized it as "less than substantial." Given the likelihood that Mr. Allen will ultimately be acquitted of the charges against him, subjecting him to a loss of liberty pending trial is particularly unfair.
2. As the Magistrate Judge correctly found, Mr. Allen, a lifelong resident of the community, is not a risk of flight.
3. Although Mr. Allen has been convicted of crimes of violence, all of those offenses are misdemeanors under Massachusetts law. Moreover, based upon discovery provided by the government and upon information and belief, these violent offenses occurred while the defendant was drunk. Pretrial Services can conduct testing to ensure that defendant is not abusing alcohol.

4. To the extent that Mr. Allen's prior criminal record suggests that he might constitute a danger to the community, any such danger can be obviated by placing him on an electronic bracelet or curfew. Such a condition of release would enable him to provide practical and emotional support to his longtime girlfriend, Alicia Parisi, as she prepares for the birth of their first child in October.
5. Under all of the circumstances presented here, the Court can readily fashion a combination of conditions to reasonably assure Mr. Allen's appearance as required and the safety of the community.

The grounds for the instant motion are set forth more fully in the accompanying memorandum of law.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH ALLEN
